0600 SOW- WE WERE ADVISED TO CONDUCT EXTRA PATROL TO THE REAR OF DENNY'S LOCATED AT 5751 SUNSET BLVD. THERE HAVE BEEN COMPLAINTS INVOLVING 602 / 594 AND RSP ON THE PROPERTY. YESTERDAY, WE ATTENDED THE MONTHLY HHOT MEETING. BELOW IS A BRIEF SYNOPSIS OF WHAT WAS DISCUSSED.

Courtney brought the meeting to order and directed Spencer to begin. Spencer advised the Center will be closing for remodeling UFN. Alex took over and explained the basis of today's meeting will include CES accomplishments, the process of implementation and moving forward, and how to get there. She will be brainstorming with the group various ideas to make the system better. Kerry Morrison joined the meeting shortly after it began. She was excited to announce her findings involving the questions BID officers asked homeless. The CES meeting had little to do with BID officers, but we did give some concerns with a few clients.

We also spoke with Savanah regarding Richard McFarthing and the email that was generated earlier today. She advised Richard is not exactly on board with moving into a place. We also tried to find out the whereabouts of Moses Speare- he was taken last week from the bus bench at Whitley Avenue and Hollywood Blvd by LAFD. The concern on the street was that he passed away. There are no facts backing the gossip.
